Primary School

Welcome From Our Headteacher

Dear Candidate,

I am delighted that you are interested in joining our organisation in the role of HLTA PE and Enrichment. I hope that this information pack gives you a flavour of the role and of the school.

It gives me great pleasure to introduce you to Acre View Primary School. Acre View Primary School is a new school in the beautiful village of Lydiate in Sefton. We will cater for primary aged children with a range of complex Special Educational Needs and Disabilities. We will support pupils with social and communication difficulties; Autistic Spectrum Condition; ADHD; PDA; SEMH; related learning and emotional, sensory and motor needs, across a range of cognitive abilities.

You will be a creative thinker who approaches delivering the National Curriculum with innovative and enthusiastic approach which enthuses learners. We are seeking individuals who are capable of inspiring and motivating both peers and pupils as we support young people who have faced challenges in their educational lives.

We offer you the highest training opportunities within a team of fantastically skilled members of staff who put children first and foremost. Our pupil centered approach can be intensive yet rewarding, we are a real team with mutually supportive members who listen to and learn from each other.

This exciting opportunity of starting at 'day one' allows the successful candidate to be a part of a positive and highly effective team,

If you are an effective teacher who is considering applying to for this essential role, please email our HR Department at recruitment@wkrs.co.uk to arrange a discussion with myself with regards to the role and to receive the information pack and application form.

With warm regards,

Liz Wynne

Head Teacher of Acre View Primary School
